New Interactive Contribution Map Creates Buzz

Today, the State Ethics Commission’s Information Technology department unveiled the newest feature to the Commission’s website. Located on the Main Page, this map of Georgia’s counties provides an interactive experience that allows users to instantly view the monetary value of campaign contributions donated from each county. User friendly functions can search results by county, office, party, zip code and/or year.

Take advantage of this valuable new feature and visit the Commission’s website at www.ethics.ga.gov!
